By UCR NIBRS definition, simple assault victims sustain minor or no injury. Weapons used to commit a simple assault, personal or other, do not have the potential to induce an injury more than minor.

Injury and weapon data are not collected on the offenses of intimidation, statutory rape, and incest. By definition, intimidation offenses involve no injury and no weapon. Nonforcible sex offenses, statutory rape and incest, are of a nonviolent nature, which would also involve no injury and no weapon.
