The population data, released by the U.S. Bureau of the Census on March 2001, is based on the April 2000 census. Idaho crime data reported in 2000 represents 98% of the total population; therefore, rates are calculated on an adjusted population base.

Foreword

I am pleased to forward to you the 2000 edition of “Crime In Idaho”, which is the compilation of Uniform Crime Reporting data supplied by Idaho’s law enforcement agencies at the local and state levels.

Contained in this publication is information about the nature and volume of crime in our State. The document’s accuracy continues to be dependent upon the information provided by the contributors.

Statistical information depicts offenses reported to law enforcement after confirmation of a call for service or complaint clearly indicates the commission of a crime. However, it does not reflect dispositions by a coroner, prosecutor, or court.

This publication is prepared with the hope of providing a valuable tool to assist law enforcement administrators in determining their priorities in the fight against crime. It should also prove to be a vital resource to legislators, researchers, educators, and other public and private agencies involved with criminal justice in Idaho. This edition of “Crime in Idaho” includes a special supplement describing our efforts to combat the production, sale, and distribution of methamphetamine in the state. We believe the statewide methamphetamine initiative is having a clear and measurable impact on this pervasive threat.

The success and viability of this publication is the direct result of a joint venture between the Idaho State Police and all contributors. The collection and publication of crime statistics increases awareness for all citizens and establishes a greater understanding of the problems facing law enforcement. We remain fully committed to working closely with the criminal justice community and all concerned citizens on addressing the problems associated with criminal activity in our State.

Dedication

In special recognition of 11 years of service managing the Idaho Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) program, this issue of the "Crime in Idaho 2000" is dedicated to Dona Wood.

Dona Wood

Crime Data Reporting Analyst
Idaho Uniform Crime Reporting Unit
1987 - 1998

Records Supervisor
Criminal History Unit
1998 - 2000

Her contributions to the Idaho UCR program started in 1987. As a result of her vision and dedication, Dona pioneered Idaho's successful journey to implement the expanded and enhanced method of crime reporting known as the National Incident Based Reporting System (NIBRS).

Throughout the years of managing the UCR program, Dona exemplified her desire to provide accurate and uniform crime information. Her dedication contributed greatly to the improvement of the "Crime in Idaho" publication and elevated the level of customer service our department strives to achieve. She developed and conducted POST certified UCR/NIBRS training within our state. Being considered an expert in her field, she served on a variety of panels and committees established to address crime related issues facing our society. Nationally, Dona represented Idaho on all issues related to UCR/NIBRS and participated in several Association of State Uniform Crime Reporting Programs (ASUCRP) national conferences.

She is respectfully recognized locally and nationally for her leadership and willingness to assist law enforcement agencies and the criminal justice community. We extend our deepest appreciation to Dona as she retires with 14 years of faithful service to the Idaho State Police.

Idaho UCR Participants in 2000

Idaho State Police units of patrol, investigations, and Alcohol Beverage Control submit crime data under the Idaho Uniform Crime Reporting program. A special note of acknowledgment and gratitude is extended to the local law enforcement agencies listed below for their participation and dedication to the Idaho UCR program. Without their efforts to provide crime data this publication would not be possible.

Uniform Crime Reporting Program

“An indispensable tool in the war against crime is the ability to identify with precision when and where crime takes place, what form it takes, and the characteristics of its victims and perpetrators.” NIBRS Handbook

Idaho Uniform Crime Reporting Program

Since 1974, Idaho has participated in the National Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) Program. This program is a nationwide statistical collaboration designed to collect accurate crime data from all law enforcement agencies in a “uniform” manner. The Idaho UCR Program adopted the expanded and enhanced method of crime reporting, National Incident Based Reporting System (NIBRS), in 1991. Reporting definitions, rules, and guidelines are based on the Uniform Crime Reporting Handbook, NIBRS Edition, provided by the U.S. Department of Justice, Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Objectives: The program’s primary objective is to provide a reliable set of criminal statistics for law enforcement purposes. Law enforcement administrators can utilize these statistics for operational use, such as determination of manpower and training needs, proper focus of enforcement efforts and deterrence programs, budgets, and grant proposals. Furthermore, these statistics can provide valuable information to assist law enforcement in identifying specific crime activity facing law enforcement, such as juvenile crime activity, domestic violence, child abuse, crime motivated by hate, property crime, and drug/alcohol related crime.

The program’s secondary objective is to inform all government officials and the public as to the nature of the crime problems in Idaho, its magnitude and trends. Historically, statistics generated from UCR have proven to be a vital resource to legislators, educators, municipal planners, criminologists, media, advocate groups, and other public and private agencies involved with criminal justice throughout our country.

Verification Procedures: An obvious concern in the collection of crime statistics is the validity and uniformity of the data received. Uniform federal guidelines and statewide training is available to all contributors. Each incoming report is examined for mathematical accuracy and, perhaps of even more importance, for reasonableness as a possible indication of errors. Adjustments or unusual variations are brought to the attention of the submitting agency and, if necessary, corrections are made.

Considerations for Interpretation: Crime activity in a particular community can be deceiving unless specific factors are examined and taken into consideration before conclusions are made. Some conditions affecting the type and volume of crime are:

- * population size, density, and degree of urbanization
- * population variations in composition and stability
- * economic conditions and employment availability
- * cultural factors and educational, recreational, and religious characteristics
- * effective strength of the police force
- * administrative and investigative emphases of law enforcement
- * prosecutorial, judicial, and/or correctional policies
- * values established by family, community, and society in general
- * citizens’ attitude toward crime and police
- * crime reporting practices of citizens

UCR Collection Authority: Idaho Code 67-3006 states: A law enforcement agency shall submit to the department, at the time, in the manner, and in the form prescribed by the department, data regarding crimes committed within that agency's jurisdiction. The department shall publish an annual report, available no later than July 1 of the following year, containing the statistical information gathered under this section that relates to the number and nature of criminal offenses, arrests, and clearances, and any other data the director determines to be appropriate relating to the method, frequency, cause and prevention of crime.

Idaho Code 67-2915 states: All city, county and state law enforcement units shall be required to report to the director all incidences of, complaints on, and arrests for malicious harassment crimes within their respective jurisdictions. The director shall develop a standard procedure and shall prescribe and provide a standard form for complete and uniform reporting.

Malicious harassment is defined by Idaho Code 18-7902, which states: It shall be unlawful for any person, maliciously and with the specific intent to intimidate or harass another person because of that person's race, color, religion, ancestry, or national origin, to:

- (a) cause physical injury to another person; or
- (b) damage, destroy, or deface any real or personal property of another person; or
- (c) threaten, by word or act, to do the acts prohibited if there is reasonable cause to believe that any of the acts described in subsections (a) and (b) of this section will occur. For purposes of this section "deface" shall include, but not be limited to, cross-burnings or the placing of any word or symbol commonly associated with racial, religious, or ethnic terrorism on the property of another person without his or her permission.

Method of Collection: The national UCR program is administered by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). Crime reporting on the national level is accepted under two methods. Summary-based method collects the following: Part 1 offenses and arrests data, which consists of 8 specific crimes; arrest data only for Part 2 offenses. The National Incident Based Reporting System (NIBRS) method collects the following: Group A offenses and arrests data, which includes an additional 22 offenses in conjunction with the Part 1 crime; arrest data only on Group B offenses.

NIBRS is the methodology used by 100% of the Idaho UCR participating law enforcement agencies. Each agency is responsible for compiling and submitting their crime data to the UCR unit of the Idaho State Police, Bureau of Criminal Identification. State submission options available to Idaho law enforcements agencies are: on-line entry utilizing the Idaho Law Enforcement Telecommunications System (ILETS); or data file submission from a records management system which has acquired state approval for NIBRS reporting; or submit hard copy NIBRS form which is limited to agencies with less than 50 reportable incidents a month.

Population Coverage: Population figures are furnished by the Idaho Department of Commerce, <http://www.idoc.state.id.us>. The population data, released by the U.S. Bureau of the Census on March 2001, are based on the April 2000 census. Crime data, reported by 106 Idaho law enforcement agencies, represent 98% of the population of Idaho for the year 2000; therefore, statewide rates are calculated on an adjusted population base.

Data Count: NIBRS offenses are categorized by crimes against persons, property, and society. Crimes against persons are counted by each victim within an incident (i.e., three victims of murder committed at the same time and place calculate to three offenses of murder). Crimes against property and society are counted by each distinct incident (i.e., three victims of vandalism committed at the same time and place calculate to one offense of vandalism).

Group "A" Offenses			Group "B" Offenses (reported only when an arrest is made)
Crimes Against Persons	Crimes Against Property	Crimes Against Society
Murder Negligent Manslaughter Forcible Rape Forcible Sodomy Sexual Assault w/Object Forcible Fondling Aggravated Assault Simple Assault Intimidation Kidnaping Incest Statutory Rape	Robbery Burglary/Breaking & Entering Larceny/Theft Offenses Motor Vehicle Theft Arson Destruction of Property Counterfeiting/Forgery Fraud Offenses Embezzlement Extortion/Blackmail Bribery Stolen Property Offenses	Drug/Narcotic Violations Drug Equipment Violations Gambling Offenses Pornography Prostitution Offenses Weapon Law Violations	Bad Checks Curfew/Loitering/Vagrancy Disorderly Conduct DUI Drunkenness Nonviolent Family Offenses Liquor Law Violations Peeping Tom Trespass of Real Property All Other Offenses Runaways - (not a crime, only reported when law enforcement apprehends juvenile)

Consider the method of reporting when comparing Idaho crime counts with another state. NIBRS, unlike summary reporting, counts up to ten different offenses committed within a single crime incident. Summary reporting counts only one offense per incident. Due to the increase of countable offenses, the total crime counts and crime rates will be higher in a NIBRS reporting state as compared to a summary reporting state.

Arrest data represents the number of persons arrested, not on charges lodged. One set of arrest data is submitted per person per single apprehension. One arrest count can clear several offenses within the same incident and/or multiple incidents. The reporting agency determines the most serious offense and reports it as the arresting offense. Participating agencies should only report those arrests for offenses committed within their own jurisdiction. Traffic violations, except for DUI, Hit and Run (of a person), and Vehicular Manslaughter, are not collected under the UCR program.

Clearance: Under the NIBRS reporting guidelines, offenses are considered "cleared" when at least one offender is arrested for a crime or the reporting agency clears the offenses by exceptional means. An exceptional clearance can only be taken when at least one offender is positively identified (exact age, sex, and race), sufficient probable cause to support an arrest or charge exist, offenders' location is known so that an arrest could be made, and a physical arrest is not possible due to specific circumstances outside the control of law enforcement. Those specific circumstances are limited to: death of the offender, prosecution declined, victim refused to cooperate, juvenile/no custody, or extradition denied.

Crime report status of inactive or case closed does not necessarily "clear" offenses. Unfounded reports, those deemed to be false, without merit, or in fact did not occur are not counted.

The crime clock should be viewed with care. Being the most aggregate representation of the UCR data, it is designed to convey the annual reported crime experience by showing the relative frequency of occurrence of the Group "A" Offenses. This mode of display should not be taken to imply a regularity in the commission of the offenses, rather, it represents the annual ratio of crime to fixed time intervals.

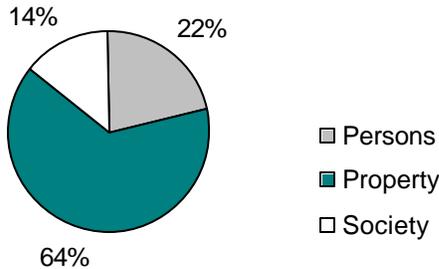

Group "A" Crime Reported in Idaho for 2000

The term Group "A" offenses is utilized under the National Incident Based Reporting System (NIBRS) program guidelines to identify reportable offenses committed within a crime incident. Up to ten distinct crime offenses committed at the same time and place by the same offender, or group of offenders that are aware of, and consent to, or assist in the commission of the crime(s) are reported. NIBRS crime classifications are generically defined to provide a common denominator for which crime data can be uniformly measured by local, state, and federal law enforcement agencies. The reporting of Group "A" offenses has no bearing on whether an arrest or an exceptional clearance is possible.

Idaho Urban/Rural Crime in 2000

The U.S. Bureau of the Census defines urban as incorporated cities with a population of 2,500 or more. Rural is defined as cities with a population less than 2,500 and unincorporated county areas. County areas adjacent to a large city and with a population density of at least 1,000 persons per square mile may be considered urban based on percentage of urban/rural. The Idaho Department of Commerce provided data indicating the urbanized areas by reporting jurisdiction. Population figures, released March 2001 from the U.S. Bureau of the Census, are based on the April 2000 census. Data count distribution is based on the percentage of urban/rural ratio of each crime reporting jurisdiction.

Definition

- The theft of a motor vehicle -

A motor vehicle is defined for UCR purposes as a self-propelled vehicle that runs on land surface and not on rails, and whose primary purpose is to transport persons. Motorcycles, scooters, snowmobiles, golf carts, etc. are categorized under "other motor vehicles". Recreational vehicles are specifically designed to transport people and also provide them temporary lodging for recreational purposes. Idaho Arrests in 2000

The term "arrest" is defined as a physical arrest, citation or served summons. This data represents the number of persons arrested, not on charges lodged; therefore, each reporting jurisdiction submits one set of arrest data for each person per single apprehension. One set of arrest data will clear single or multiple offenses in the same incident and/or multiple incidents. Arrests on warrants issued by another jurisdiction are reported by the originating agency, not the arresting agency.

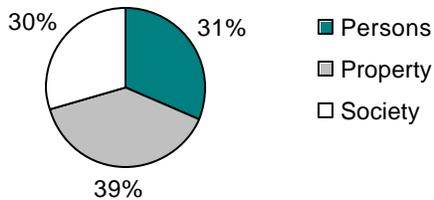

All persons arrested for the commission of a Group "A" or Group "B" crime are included in this count. Group "B" crime, which is only reported on the arrest level, encompasses offenses which are not under the Group "A" category. Excluded from this count are any traffic related arrests, with the exception of DUI, Hit and Run (of a person), and Vehicular Manslaughter.

Any situation involving a juvenile, in lieu of an actual arrest, is summoned, cited, or notified to appear before a juvenile court or similar authority for a violation of the law is reported as an arrest.

Juvenile Arrests by Group "A" Category

- ▶▶ 6% decrease in juvenile violent crime.
- ▶▶ 23.4% of juvenile arrests were between 13 and 14 years of age.
- ▶▶ 31.1% of juveniles arrested were handled within department and not referred to other authorities, such as juvenile court.

Hate Crime In Idaho

"Morally, we all recognize hate as an evil, and we have long struggled as a society to understand hate as a sickness, but legally we must increasingly confront hate as a vicious breaking of the law" ...Attorney General Dick Thornbury

Hate Crime in Idaho for 2000

Definition

- A criminal offense committed against a person or property which is motivated in whole or in part, by the offender's bias against a race/national origin, religion, sexual-orientation, mental/physical disability or ethnicity -

Idaho was one of the first twelve states to pass legislation regarding malicious harassment. Idaho Code 18-7901, 18-7902, 18-7903 and 67-2915 depict policy on hate crime, its collection and reporting. Uniform Crime Reporting gathers hate crime information as an additional element and/or characteristic of the offenses reported.

Hate crime incidents are identified on the subjective motivation of the offender(s). Law enforcement investigations solely determine the sufficient objective facts to lead a reasonable and prudent conclusion that the offender's actions were motivated by bias against a racial, religious, ethnic/national origin, mental/physical disability, or sexual-orientation group. Information derived from the following statements can establish supportive facts to correctly identify hate bias motivation.

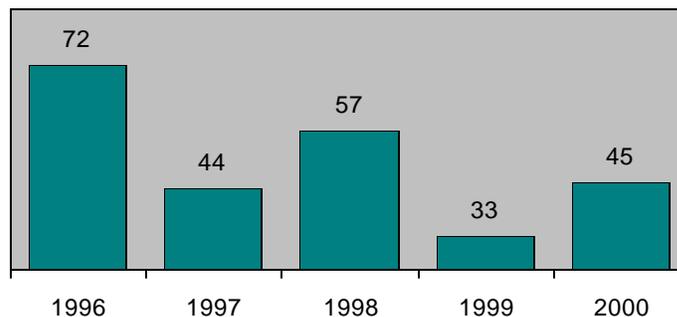

- * bias-related drawings, markings, symbols, or graffiti were left at the crime scene
- * bias-related oral comments, written statements, or gestures made by the offender which indicate his/her bias
- * the incident coincided with a holiday relating to, or a date of particular significance to, a race, religion, disability, ethnicity, or sexual-orientation
- * the offender and the victim were of different race, religion, ethnicity, or sexual-orientation
- * certain objects, items, or things which indicate bias were used in the commission of the crime
- * the victim is a member and/or engaged in activities promoting a racial, religious, disability, ethnic, or sexual orientation group
- * several incidents occurred in the same locality, at or about the same time, and the victims were all of the same race, religion, disability, ethnicity, or sexual-orientation

Accurate data collection for hate crime depends heavily on proper training of law enforcement to recognize such incidents and the cooperation and desire of law enforcement communities to report these offenses without the influence of special interest groups, media, and politics. Training material for recognizing and reporting hate crime have been distributed to all law enforcement departments. Training is given each year in conjunction with the UCR/NIBRS training sessions throughout the State. Additional training is offered by the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

▶▶ 50% of hate crime victims of crimes against persons knew the offender(s).

▶▶ 17.8% hate crime incidents were committed by multiple offenders.

The killing or assault of law enforcement officers is an increasingly serious problem faced by law enforcement administrators nationwide and should be of the gravest concern to the public at large. Today the ambitious young person who considers a career in law enforcement must also consider the risk of being killed or assaulted by a member of the society they are sworn to protect.

Assaults on law enforcement officers are collected under the UCR program on sworn officers only. Reportable assaults, which include aggravated assault, simple assault, and intimidation offenses, should result from a serious injury, use of a weapon, or action involving more than mere verbal abuse or minor resistance to an arrest.

In an effort to depict the nature and volume of crime in a particular community and avoid data being reported more than once, jurisdictional reporting guidelines are established for law enforcement agencies participating in the Uniform Crime Reporting program.

▶▶ City law enforcement agencies report offenses that occur within their city limits.

▶▶ County and state law enforcement agencies report offenses that occur outside the city limits.

▶▶ When two or more law enforcement agencies respond and/or are involved in an investigation of the same offense, or share respective jurisdictions under agreement, the "primary" or "lead" investigative agency will report the incident.

▶▶ Agencies report only those arrests made for offenses committed within their own jurisdictions.

▶▶ Recovery of property is reported only by the agency that first reported it missing and/or stolen, regardless of who or what agency recovered it.

▶▶ If an agency refers an investigation to another law enforcement agency, the original reporting of the incident is transferred to the receiving agency, unless otherwise specified by an agreement between the agencies.

▶▶ Federal agencies report offenses within their investigative jurisdictions if they are not being reported by a local/state law enforcement agency.

A major volume of reportable incidents involving the Idaho State Police is generated by assisting other law enforcement agencies. When an agency assists another agency, those incidents are reported by the originating jurisdiction where the crime occurred, unless the entire case is referred.

Patrol, Investigations, and Alcohol Beverage Control units of the Idaho State Police, only report those incidents where they are designated as the primary investigating agency.

The Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) program collects annual data on law enforcement employees from participating agencies. Data is categorized as a law enforcement sworn officer or a civilian employee. Actual counts represents the number of positions filled as of October 31, 2000 and may not match the number of positions authorized for an agency.

Law enforcement officers consists of all full-time, sworn personnel with full arrest powers, which includes the sheriff and deputies, constables, marshals, chiefs and members of the police force, and other officers whose duties are to enforce and preserve the public peace. Although full time civilian employees and jailers may be sworn personnel and are paid from law enforcement funds, if they do not engage in other law enforcement functions, such as patrol, they are not included in the sworn officer count.

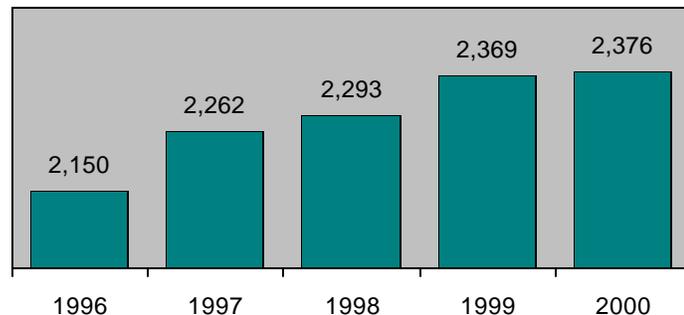

Civilian employees include full time personnel such as radio dispatchers, records personnel, meter attendants, stenographers, mechanics, and jailers paid from law enforcement funds, whose duties serve as support for law enforcement officers.

In addition to the national UCR program and for Idaho law enforcement administrative purposes, a count of full-time jail employees paid from a separate budget is provided separately in this section.

IDAHO'S METHAMPHETAMINE INITIATIVE

The Arrestee Drug Abuse Monitoring (ADAM) program, funded by the National Institute of Justice, provides criminal justice system practitioners with a unique ability to examine voluminous drug use data collected at a variety of sites throughout our country. The broad range of specific user cohorts examined in this long-term study have enabled research analysts and policy makers to accurately assess current drug usage, as well as to gain an increased understanding of future trends. The 1999 ADAM Report made the following observation regarding methamphetamine use:

“Methamphetamine use among ADAM arrestees is a phenomenon that appears to be concentrated mainly in the Western United States. Adult female methamphetamine rates ranged from zero in nine sites to 36% in San Diego; adult male methamphetamine use ranged from zero in five sites to 28% in Sacramento... The large number of sites that had virtually no presence of methamphetamine should not obscure the small but substantial number of sites that showed a high proportion of methamphetamine use.”

During the 1999 session of the Idaho Legislature, Governor Dirk Kempthorne recommended that significant additional funding be provided to the Idaho Department of Law Enforcement to dramatically increase its statewide efforts to fight the production and distribution of methamphetamine in our state. Concurrent with legislative approval of requested funding, key staff of the Idaho Department of Law Enforcement (which became the Idaho State Police on July 1, 1999) accelerated their efforts to develop a comprehensive strategy that would enlist criminal justice system agencies in creating and maintaining partnerships to attack this dangerous drug on all fronts. Utilizing successful models developed by other states as its springboard, Idaho developed additional partnerships with communities, business leaders, and citizen groups. The resulting Combined Agency Methamphetamine Partnership (CAMP) initiative was launched in October of 1999 with regional meetings that encouraged potential partner agencies to provide recommendations to be incorporated into the comprehensive plan of action.

During its first full year of operation in calendar year 2000, the statewide methamphetamine initiative has enjoyed significant success on several fronts. Two key performance indicators for the Idaho State Police relate to identification/dismantling of clandestine methamphetamine laboratories in Idaho and methamphetamine cases currently under investigation. In regard to the former, the Idaho State Police participated in seizing 186 laboratories during 2000, an increase of approximately 9% over 1999's total of 171. Although this increase is modest in comparison to the five-year seizure trend, we believe our targeted efforts directly contributed to slowing the apparent rate of growth in 2000.

It is important to note that the 800% increase in seizures between 1995 and 2000 is not felt to represent an exponential increase in production activity; rather, the Idaho State Police believe that its combined enforcement, education, and community partnership campaign has successfully engaged all strata of citizens in Idaho in battling methamphetamine. The latter indicator, the number of methamphetamine cases actively under investigation, rose from 91 in calendar year 1999 to 141 in calendar year 2000. Although this dramatic increase in caseload strains available investigative resources, it is the inevitable result of effective enforcement program design.

A valuable collateral performance indicator was the relatively low street price of methamphetamine in Idaho at the end of calendar year 2000. The per-ounce price of this drug was $1,000 to $1,200 several years ago, and fell to approximately $450-$500 by the end of 2000. It is our belief that this cost differential represents a significant market glut of methamphetamine, and may be directly attributed to an increased supply of the drug from out of state sources. As intrastate production has been curtailed to a significant degree, the Idaho State Police has been able to redirect investigative resources toward targeting large-scale interstate traffickers and distribution networks. It is our anticipation that the effectiveness of these efforts may be measured by the cost per ounce of methamphetamine indicator described above. If our efforts in interrupting external lines of supply are effective, we would expect to see a concomitant rise in the street cost of methamphetamine during calendar year 2001.

A third key performance indicator used by the Idaho State Police relates to another of the several activities described in our statewide initiative. The Idaho Criminal Enforcement Team (ICE-T), which operates from Region 3 in Southwestern Idaho, has enjoyed significant success in serving drug warrants and interdicting drug traffickers since its inception. Although data from a single team's operations in a specific geographic area are statistically difficult to extrapolate into a statewide model, the Idaho State Police believe that careful expansion of this joint investigations-patrol concept into other regions of the state will yield similarly positive results.

The education component of the statewide methamphetamine initiative has been a departure from our traditional focus on enforcement objectives, but has been quite successful during its first year. During calendar year 2000 Idaho State Police staff made 331 methamphetamine initiative presentations throughout the state of Idaho, providing well over 7,500 individuals with detailed information on the threat this drug represents to our citizens. An additional 18 presentations were made to staff of Idaho's health districts, the Division of Environmental Quality (DEQ), and Health and Welfare during this same period. As we move into 2001, the Idaho State Police will begin its efforts to place informational posters in employee break rooms at businesses, and neighborhood methamphetamine watch pamphlets in easily accessible locations.

Among the most critically needed of the statewide initiative's activities relates to the development of working partnerships throughout the State of Idaho. In addition to its many presentations to local law enforcement agencies during 2000, the Idaho State Police initiated dialogs with staff of other state agencies to discuss the environmental hazards associated with clandestine methamphetamine laboratory. This working group is currently developing a legislative package that would not only secure funding for the ongoing needs of law enforcement, but which would adequately address public safety issues surrounding the dismantling of laboratories and return of these properties to a habitable condition. During its first year of operation, the methamphetamine initiative successfully engaged concerned community members and retailers in development of strategies to address the sale of equipment used in the manufacture of methamphetamine, as well as sales of pseudoephedrine and other precursor ingredients.

As Idaho's statewide methamphetamine initiative enters its second year, the Idaho State Police will continue and expand its efforts to fundamentally involve the criminal justice system and our many private and public partners in becoming advocates for the elimination of methamphetamine production and use in our state. As we continue to focus on the essential tasks at hand, it is our hope that the active involvement of more Idaho communities and their citizens will further increase the momentum of this vital project. For, as Sir Robert Peel stated in the early years of the 19th century:

"The police are the public; the public are the police. The police are the only members of the public who are paid to give full-time attention to duties that are incumbent on every citizen in the interest of community welfare and existence."
